

In recognition of their generosity to the Associate Alumnae of Douglass College, donors were invited to celebrate at the Mabel Smith Douglass Leadership Circle Reception held at the beautiful Jasna Polana estate in Princeton on October 11, 2012.

The evening honored generous alumnae and friends who have given to the Campaign for Douglass, who have planned gifts through their estate or financial plans, and those whose gifts during the 2011/2012 academic year qualified for Circle membership including:

Elizabeth Rodman Voorhees Society $25,000+; Neilson Family Society $10,000+; Loree Society $5,000+; Cooper Society $1,000+; Jameson Young Alumnae Society $300+ (alumnae last 0-10 years).

Campaign for Douglass Co-Chairs Alice B. Herman '70, left, and Joyce Kovatch Albers-Schonberg '65, each received an original framed watercolor by Carol McClure Sanzalone '69 of College Hall in honor of their dedication to the Campaign which has reached $25 million of the $35 million goal.
